Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

5. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

6. Claims 30-51 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. In the instant case new claim 30 recites, "brittle-fracture material which consists of glass, glass ceramic, ceramic, metal, a metal alloy or a metal composite." The examiner is unable to find support in the specification that metal, metal alloy or metal composite is a brittle-fracture material. Furthermore, there is no support in the specification for the molded element to be a metal, metal alloy or metal composite. Therefore, the limitation is consider new matter and should be deleted.
